

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Thus far, given the totalityh of the actions taken by the FCC, I can see that it pays to be rich and famous in America. On the positive side, its nice that politics crosses party lines when it comes to carving up the pie.
